

High Street and Church Hill Horsell

The object of this paper is to identify the houses and shops in the High Street and Church Hill during the period of the British ten yearly Censuses returns {1841-1911}

The Censuses would seem an excellent means of finding out who lived in which house or shop during a particular period. The returns actually began in 1801 but the earlier ones contain no specific information on individual houses or persons.

In interpreting the Censuses, if you are working with the original hand written copy handwriting is a common problem and in any event the enumerator sometimes appears to completely mishear what he was told by the head of the household.

Another particular difficulty is that whereas today every house has a number or name or both, in 1841, and for many years thereafter, houses had neither names nor numbers. If a house had a name, it either described its occupants, for example, Cosiers in Old Woking (now The Old House), its purpose, The Vicarage (or The Old Vicarage) in Horsell, or the type of property The Cottage as in present day Horsell. Where a house with a name did appear in a Census this was an early guide to location, particularly to postmen and those looking for a house in a long road. Today we have postcodes but these are only a comparatively recent introduction not likely to help at present with Census returns only published when 100 years old,

In Horsell, certainly in the early years, the returns were split into two with the dividing line running down what is now the High Street previously known as The Street or just Village. This was sensible since it is possible to establish chains of individuals who ran the two pubs almost facing each other on opposite sides of the street.

When development began on the canal side of the Church the continuation was called not unreasonably Church Hill. Subsequently some doubt arose as to where High Street ended and Church Hill began but the latter has now been established as being after the School on one side and the Church on the other.

Few houses were numbered in the earlier years except perhaps rows of cottages (either grouped or built in terraces) and not all houses retained their original name. The two separate parts of the Census in Horsell can best be identified by the two pubs namely the Red Lion on the Church side and the Crown on the other.

It would seem that the two parts of the Horsell census were arranged as if the enumerator had walked the area covered in that order even if this was not the case and data was merely so arranged afterwards. A further complication arose out of which way the invigilator walked. (The direction of the walk can be identified by the numbers given to each household) For example, starting at the Vicarage he could either continue up the High Street or down Church Hill. In the latter event, his round eventually arrived at the Birch end of the High Street continuing along the High Street until the Vicarage was reached again. The direction of the enumerator's round can be gauged by the numbering system (NB the same numbers were used for both the Red Lion and Crown sides of the Census).

Further confusion arises when a particular household is inserted completely out of order, for example the Red Lion in the 1881 Census.

You will find attached to this paper Appendices containing transcriptions of that part of the Censuses for Horsell which cover High Street and Church Hill with separate extracts for the Red Lion and Crown sides.

For 1851, details extracted from Edward Ryde's survey are also shown again divided into the two sides. This survey is generally more reliable than the census since family names are allocated to the houses and buildings shown on the survey plan. The National School opposite the church was added to the original plan (note in Ryde's diary 17 March 1852 newly erected National School at Horsell added to map).

Albert Mangles was vicar of Horsell from 1840 to 1875 but lived outside the parish at Beech Hill in Mayford. As a consequence, he does not appear in the Horsell census returns during that period and the Vicarage was often occupied by curates and others.

In describing who was living where during the period of the Censuses each side of the High Street is dealt with separately for each year commencing with the Crown side first as follows:

First the Crown side

The Crown

The returns under the 1841 and 1851 censuses appear to be arranged in the same order but the Edward Ryde 1851 survey is the most accurate record of order being based on a map with occupants allocated to particular buildings shown on the map. The names of the families in these two returns below, therefore, follow the Ryde order.

1841

Down what is now known as Church Hill (The numbers are those on the Ryde map)

612.1 Sarah Tickner and sister

612.2 John Gale, agricultural labourer and wife and daughter

The Gale and Tickner families lived in two houses above The Cottage towards the top of the hill

614 Samuel Willis, painter and wife at The Cottage (see my paper on this 18th century cottage)

Up High Street from the National School

Caveys' shop
showing oven space

606 James Cavey, baker and family

This was the village baker who carried on business on this side of the street. Former baker's premises are usually identifiable by the tell-tale old baking oven running right up to the rear of the original shop. Today the shop occupied by The Horsell Framing Company (see above) with its long left hand wall running from its frontage to the back of the plot would seem to indicate such an oven and suggest that this was the site of the original Caveys' shop.

603 William Cox, publican and wife at The Crown

600 William Spooner, shoe maker and family possibly not at the Benstead site

1851

Down what is now known as Church Hill (The numbers are those on the Ryde map)

608 Richard Pannell, retired farmer and wife

609 William Cobbett, agricultural labourer, wife and son

610.1 George Mant, agricultural labourer, wife and two sons

610.2 David Cutt, cordwainer journeyman, wife, daughter and son.

612.1 Sarah Tickner and sister

612.2 John Gale, agricultural labourer and wife and daughter

614 Samuel Willis, painter and wife at The Cottage

Up High Street from the National School

606 James Cavey, baker and family.

605 Henry Chandler, agricultural labourer and family

604 James Steer, carpenter and wife

603 William Cox, publican and wife at the Crown.

601 Henry Hayter, saddler and grocer and wife

600 William Spooner, draper/shoemaker

1861

In part of Street (items 1 to 4 in return)

William Spooner, draper and cordwainer and family

Ambrose Brooker, grocer and family probably in the Cavey's bakers shop

David Shepherd, victualler and family at the Crown.

Previous landlord William Cox appears as a boarder at East Gains Farm (probably East Gaze or Guise Farm actually Esgairs on the Red Lion side. See my paper on this property) His wife Fanny would seem to have died.

In Church Hill (items 6 to 14 in return)

Eliza Cavey, baker and daughter

Henry Chandler, labourer and son

James Winter, schoolmaster and family in National School

John Stedman, labourer and family

David Cutt, cordwainer, and family

George Sleet, labourer and wife

Joseph Sleet, labourer and family

Thomas Collins, cordwainer

Henry Howard, labourer and wife

John Williss, labourer and wife

1871 (houses and shops not necessarily in the following sequence)

The enumerator walked (or arranged) his returns from Benstead in the High Street past the National School and down Church Hill (item 1 to 19 in return)

William Spooner, draper and boot maker and family at Benstead

Ambrose Brooker, master grocer son and daughter possibly at the Cavey's bakers shop

Alfred Wheeler, agricultural labourer and family

Maria Green, publican son and daughter at the Crown

Eliza Cavey widow of the previous village baker, living in Horsell Street with her granddaughter

George Smithers, gardener and wife

George Bayles blacksmith and family

George Sleet, and wife

James Reid, painter wife and son

John Trigg, nurseryman and wife

George Tussler, nursery labourer and family

James Heather, agricultural labourer and family

James Cobbett retired farmer and wife at The Cottage? (see my paper on this cottage)

JJ Stainton, gentleman farmer

Charles Pigden, farm labourer and wife

William Holmes, schoolmaster wife and sisters in the National School

Thomas William George, groom and valet wife and son

1881 (houses and shops not necessarily in the following sequence)

The enumerator walked (or arranged) his returns from Benstead in the High Street past the National School and down Church Hill (items 1 to 15 in return)

Sarah Spooner, draper and post mistress at Benstead
 Thomas Brooker, grocer and sister probably in the Cavey's shop
 George Christmas and Elizabeth at the Crown.
 Elizabeth is Elizabeth (Hannah) Hurst adopted daughter of William Collyer of Birch Farm House, (see my paper on Horsell Birch).
 Hannah Sleet and sister (Hannah has been widowed)
 Thomas Burrow and wife
 James Harding, labourer and family
 Thomas E King, schoolmaster and wife at National School
 Eli G Spooner, clerk wife and son
 Charles Pigden, labourer and wife
 Charles Taylor, boot maker and family
 John W Stedman, brewer and wife
 Isaac Steer, carpenter and family
 James Hayward, farm labourer and family at The Cottage (see my paper on this cottage)
 John Hough, retired naval officer wife and stepchildren
 William Spenceley, retired wife and daughter

1891(houses and shops not necessarily in the following sequence)

The enumerator walked (or arranged) his returns from Benstead in the High Street past the National School and down Church Hill (items 1 to 14 in return)

Sarah Spooner, draper and post mistress and brother
 Gertrude Marnes son and daughter
 Charles A Cook, Grocer sister and son probably in the Cavey's shop
 Elizabeth Steer, school work and sons
 Edward Daniel and wife at the Crown
 Sarah Smith and daughter
 James Harding, general labourer and family
 Thomas E King, schoolmaster at the National School
 Elizabeth Spooner, widow and family
 Charles Taylor, boot maker and family
 Alfred Wild, vet wife and daughter
 George Wright, clerk CC and wife
 John W Stedman, brewer(?) and wife
 (John) Henry Dimmock, builder and family at The Cottage (see my paper on the cottage)

1901

The enumerator walked (or arranged) his returns from the bottom of Church Hill to the Post Office in High Street (items 25 to 31 in the return)

Louisa M Reeves and daughter at The Spurriers
 Arthur J Messer, architect and wife at Harlestone
 Charles B Ryde surveyor valuer and sister at Hillside
 Cyril C Nicholas, dealer in stocks and shares and sister at Starston
 John B Drowey, architect and family at Afcot
 Ronald Gale, glass merchant and family at The Cottage
 John W Stedman, brewer in the Village

Marianna W Adams, own means and sister at Croft Villa
 Walter B Harrison, own means at The Shrubberies
 Charles Taylor, bootmaker and wife at Mount Cottage
 Thomas E King, assistant overseer parish and family at Church Hill
 Hylton Tidy, elementary school teacher and wife at School House
National School
 Earnest G Taylor, brewer's drayman and family at The Cottage
 William H Daniels, licensed victualler and wife at the Crown
 Benjamin Allan, grocer and provision merchant and wife at Village store
 Sarah E Spooner, draper at Post Office

1911

The 1911 Census shows the number of rooms occupied by each individual household. The number includes the kitchen as a room but not any scullery, landing, lobby, closet, bathroom; nor warehouse, office, shop. The number of rooms is shown in blue by the dwelling name

The enumerator walked (or arranged) his returns from the bottom of Church Hill to the Post Office in High Street

Mary Florence Reid, independent means and son at *Spurriers*¹¹
 Thomas Cecil Jones, engineer and contractor and family at *Harleston*⁸
 Annie Wetherill, laundry at *Hillside*⁷
 James Franks, retired grocer wife and daughter at *Starston*⁷
 Frederick Shaw, Bank of England clerk and family at *Afcot*⁷
 Alice Letitica Morice, private means at *The Cottage*¹⁰ (see my paper on this cottage)
 Thomas Perry, clerk in telegraph company and wife at *Vale Villa*⁶
 Henry Edwards, railway clerk and wife at *The Croft*⁶
 Rosina Stedman independent daughter and son at the *Shrubberies*⁸
 Charles Tayler, boot repairer and wife at *Mount Cottage*⁶
 Thomas King, assistant overseer wife and daughter at *Churchill*⁷
 James Henry Hill, caretaker and family at *School House*⁵
 Ernest George Taylor, labourer and builder carman combined and family at *Horsell Street*⁷
 William Thorn, licensed victualler and wife at the *Crown*⁵
 John Brownjohn, grocer and family took over the shop⁷ from Benjamin Allam.

Brownjohns

In 1925 he is Sub Post Master. John handed the shop over to his son Will in 1945 who retired from the business in 1952 passing the shop (see below) to a Mr RT Shrimpton. The shop became successively the Gift Box by the 1960s, selling papers, confectionery and a limited range of groceries, toys and other goods, then Heritage Handles and Global Travel Management before becoming vacant for the last few years

Sarah Elizabeth Spooner sub post mistress and draper at *Benstead*⁶ (see below)

She handed over the Post Office to Mr Claydon of South Road in 1919 but retained the drapers until about 1926.

Benstead

And now the Red Lion side

Red Lion

The returns under the 1841 and 1851 censuses appear to be arranged in the same order but the Edward Ryde 1851 survey is the most accurate record of order being based on a map with occupants allocated to particular buildings shown on the map. The names of the families in these two returns below, therefore, follow the Ryde order ie not the order of the walk or arrangement.

1841 (The numbers are those on the Ryde map)

101 James Stedman, farmer and family at Malthouse Farm

100 David Harmes, labourer and family and

100 James Martin, agricultural labourer wife and daughter both families were probably living at present day Kalmia.

This above suggestion allows for Carmi Cobbett and his family to move in after he and his brother. Henry purchased the Nurseries Estate in 1841 (see 1851). Very little of the old original two cottages remains but the roof line shows that this has been raised (see picture below)

Kalmia

7 Stephen and Sarah Moore at the Red Lion

605 Henry Chandler, labourer and Jane (previously on The Crown side)

10 John Knowls a farmer and butcher.

In 1840 it was probably he probably bought The Horsell Nurseries Estate (including Esgairs, Sow Moor, Gastons, Inner and Outer Gastons Field and Marl Close)

A farmer who breeds cattle does so to sell those cattle. These days we are accustomed to see cattle sold at market but in the 19th century there was no reason why a farmer should not slaughter and sell his cattle to the public himself. John Knowls carried on business from roughly where 113 High Street stands today. This house was built when the previous building Lime Tree House was compulsorily purchased by Woking Council.

1851 (The numbers are those on the Ryde map)

The enumerator walked (or arranged) his returns from Thornash Farm along the Street down Church Hill to the bottom (items 1 to 9 in the returns) as follows:

- 101 James Stedman at Malthouse Farm
- 100 Carmi Cobbett, nurseryman and his family at Kalmia. With his brother Henry purchased Horsell Nurseries Estate in 1841
- 2 Felix Forder, National schoolmaster and his wife in Parsonage House
- 7 Stephen Moore, victualler wife and family at the Red Lion
- 10 Herbert Hart, butcher and his wife at Lime Tree House
This is almost certainly on the same site as John Knowls. The Hart family would appear to have come from Old Woking.
- 13 James Clark, grocer and his wife
- 14 Jacob Spooner, letter carrier and his wife
- 16 George Fenn, farmer and his wife at Thornash Farm
- 62 Jonathan Baldwin, schoolmaster and wife at Ivy Cottage in Cheapside

N.B. The commentary to Edward Ryde's Survey of 1851 notes a House and Garden owned by John Knowls and occupied by Sarah Darke next to the Red Lion but neither this house nor Sarah appear in the 1851 Census (see above). Felix Forder and his wife would presumably have been employed in the newly opened National School opposite.

The 1861 census starts with the Darke family although Sarah has gone (no entry in St Mary's burial records). The remainder of the families down to James and Elizabeth Stedman are the same except Felix Forder and his wife in the Vicarage House have been replaced by William Walsh, the curate and his cousin, John Frederick Walsh

The enumerator walked (or arranged) his returns at the Red Lion or just before and proceeded downhill to Malthouse Farm (items 1 to 5 in the returns) and then along The Moor and then eventually arriving at the Birch end of High Street (items 86 to 90 in the returns) as follows:

- William Darke gentleman and family
- Stephen Moore, victualler and family at the Red Lion
- William Walsh, curate (1859-63) and cousin at the Vicarage House
St Mary's church
- Carmi Cobbett, nurseryman and family at Kalmia
- James Stedman, farmer and family at Malthouse Farm
And then along the Moor
- James Clarke, grocer and baker and wife, and boarder, William Cox former landlord of Crown at East Gains Farm (Esgairs)
- Herbert Hart, butcher and his wife at Lime Tree House

The 1871 Census has the enumerator walking the Red Lion side up Church Hill from Malthouse Farm towards and along High Street (items 86 to 90 and 1 to 4 in the returns). John Stedman and his wife have now succeeded his father at the farm, Alice and Charlotte are the only members of the Cobbett family the head having been absent on the night of the survey. The vicarage is now occupied by William Appleford, and his wife Mary Jane and their household. Stephen Moore is at the Red Lion with Henry John Rudelhoff a retired butcher and his wife between the inn and the village butcher Herbert Hart and his wife, Mary and his family. After the butchers comes James Clark, baker, his wife, Elizabeth and his father in law William Cox formerly landlord of the Crown.

John Stedman, farmer and family at Malthouse Farm

Alice and Charlotte Cobbett, nurseryman's daughters at Kalmia. Head of household not present.

William Appleford, chaplain (of female HM convict prison Woking) and family in the Vicarage.

Stephen Moore and family at the Red Lion

Henry Rudelhoff, retired butcher and wife

Herbert Hart, butcher and family at Lime Tree House

James Clark, baker and wife, and William Cox father in law and former landlord of Crown.

Richard Howard, horticultural labourer and family.

Henry Cobbett, horticultural labourer and family.

1881

1881 sees the enumerator approaching from the Birch direction of the High Street where Henry Watts and his wife Sarah are at Thornash Farm. Continuing we find Henry Cobbett, nurseryman and his wife Mary Ann employing 2 men and 4 boys and next Richard Howard, propagator of plants and his wife Jane, then Elizabeth Clark, baker and grocer, followed by Lime Tree House with Herbert Hart and wife Mary. William Harding, lodger and farm labourer completes this walk.

The Red Lion with landlord George Johnson and wife Dorsa are isolated in another part of the Census and then the walk recommences with John Back vicar at the Village followed downhill by James Cobbett, nurseryman and finally John and Rosina Stedman at the bottom of the hill

The enumerator would appear to have started his walk (or arranged) his returns at the Vicarage continuing downhill to Malthouse Farm returning to High Street at Thornash Farm to complete the circle (items 1 to 3 and 83 to 89 in the returns) as follows:

John Stedman, farmer and family at Malthouse Farm

James Cobbett, nurseryman and family at Kalmia

John Back, vicar (1878-1884) niece and nephew at the Vicarage

Return is out of position in comparison with other entries (item 36).

Herbert Hart, butcher and family at Lime Tree House

Elizabeth Clark, baker and grocer

Richard Howard, propagator of plants and family

Henry Cobbett, nursery and family

Henry Watts, farmer and family at Thornash Farm

1891

The enumerator walked (or arranged) his returns from Malthouse Farm up Church Hill and along the High Street (items 1 to 11 in the returns) as follows:

John Stedman, farmer and brewer and family at the Brewery House (or Malthouse Farm)

James Cobbett, nurseryman and family at Kalmia

William Turle, vicar (1884-1897) and wife in the Street

John Back, clerk in holy orders (previous vicar) at Church Hill House

Frank Warren, coachman and family at Church Hill House

James Picicett, licensed victualler and family at the Red Lion

John Warner, gardner and family at Gastons

Herbert Hart, butcher and his wife at Lime Tree House

There is no mention of Herbert's wife Mary so we must presume that she had died.

Joseph Payne, baker (master) and family at East Gayes (Esgairs)

Richard Howard, nurseryman propagator and family in the Street

Henry Cobbett, nurseryman and family in the Street

1901

The enumerator walked (or arranged) his returns from the bottom of Church Hill to the High Street {items 1 to 18 in the returns) as follows:

Mary Ann Ottaway, dressmaker and sisters were daughters of Carmi Cobbett and probably lived at Kalmia

Arnold Saunders, headmaster prep school family and pupils at St Mary's Hill

St Mary's Hill

St Mary's Hill was built by Mrs Isham Smith in 1899 and stood roughly where Lych Way stands today. She married Arnold Saunders at St Mary's on New Year's Day 1900 (WN&M) and he was able to set up his school after his marriage to her.

Norman Pares vicar (1897-1935) and wife in the Vicarage

Edward Cobb, port wine shipper at Church Hill

James Heale, coachman and family at Church Hill Lodge

At this point in the Census there is an entry St Marys Hill Uninhabited. This empty house probably became the new Vicarage occupied by the vicar.

Albert Gosling, licensed victualler and family at the Red Lion

Walter Lansley, gardner wife and daughter at Institute

Hiram Hart, butcher and family at Lime Tree House. Herbert must have died.

Elizabeth Steer and son at 1 Grove Cottages

Elizabeth Smith at 1 Grove Cottages

Henry Ottaway, gardener and family at 2 Grove Cottages

Herbert Bristow, gardener and family at 3 Grove Cottages

Edwin Gwilliam, police constable and family at 4 Grove Cottages

Joseph Payne, grocer and baker and family at 5 Grove Cottages

Richard Howard, nurseryman and family at Esgairs

Frederick Cobbett, railway worker and family at Nursery Cottage

Henry Cobbett, nurseryman and family at The Plat

John Eveleigh, curate (1901-9) and sister at The Plat

1911

The 1911 Census shows the number of rooms occupied by each individual household. The number includes the kitchen as a room but not any scullery, landing, lobby, closet, bathroom; nor warehouse, office, shop. The number of rooms is shown in blue by the dwelling name. The enumerator has separated the Church Hill and High Street parts of his return as follows:

The Old Vicarage today

Norman Pares, vicar (1897-1935) and wife at The Vicarage.¹⁴

This new house had been built by Mrs Saunders (the previous Mrs Isham Smith) and eventually was demolished when Pares Close was built. When Pares retired in 1935 the new vicar found this house too large and returned to the vicarage next to the church (the Old Vicarage). This left the rejected new vicarage empty which falling into the hands of the local agricultural committee on the outbreak of the war was used to house farm workers. When these workers moved after the war St Mary's Hill school used it as a boarding annex until the demand for boarders ceased.

Frederick Cobbett, gardener and family at *2 Platt Cottage*⁵

It does seem that apart from the 1841 returns the Censuses are perhaps more accurate with regard to the order of houses and shops than had been previously thought.

Wardens Park Road, from Church Hill to its junction with Bury Lane, is a development of good quality late Victorian and Edwardian houses which has remained virtually intact since it commenced in 1898. It was originally known as Waldens Park Estate and built on land from Abbey Farm, Waldens Farm and part of Horsell Nursery. The road is now part of the Horsell Conservation Area with several properties included on the Local List.

It is perhaps appropriate to include here a few words in respect of the two schools established at St Mary's Hill during this period. As can be seen above (page 11) the house had been built by Mrs Isham Smith by the end of 1899 and she married Arnold Saunders at the beginning of 1900 enabling him to set up his school which was established by the time of the 1901 census. Saunders and his wife moved the school and some pupils to Aldeburgh Lodge, Suffolk by the summer term of 1912

In the following year 1913 Gertrude and Alice Du Bochet (a family of Swiss origin) moved their school from Gwy House, Chepstow to the now empty St Mary's Hill, to re-found the school as a girls' school. Thereafter the school was always filled to its 140 capacity.

Prior to Gwy House, Gertrude had been at Royal Holloway followed by 6 years as headmistress of Church High School in Bishop Auckland. She brought staff and pupils from Bishop Auckland to Horsell, including Miss Athawes (who eventually became deputy head at St Mary's Hill). Gertrude always vetted pupils and received great loyalty from both staff and pupils at the school, although she was rather strict.

Alice was pupil of Oscar Beringer and student at Sterne Conservatorium for Music, Berlin and was piano teacher at all Gertrude's schools. Alice was more gentle in her manner than her sister and her nickname with the staff was Miss Puss. She is shown as the occupant of The Cottage in Church Hill from 1922 in the Woking News and Mail Directories

Jessie was kindergarten teacher at Deptford in 1901 and at Kensington in 1911 joining her sisters by 1940 after the death of their mother in 1937.

The du Bochet sisters retired from St Mary's Hill school in 1949. The new headmistress was Miss Iris Auer who did not have the same success as the du Bochet sisters and the school closed in Autumn 1967 when Miss Auer left for India. It is possible she may even have departed before then. What is sure is that she founded a very successful school in India in 1980. In the WN&M Directory for 1968 Mr P van Haght was shown living in St Mary's Hill school for what purpose is not known.

St Mary's Hill was demolished and eventually replaced by 9 bungalows and 23 houses constituting today's Lych Way about 1972.

With the end of the available published Censuses in that for 1911 the continuing changes in Church Hill and High Street can be followed in the Directories published by the Woking News & Mail for Church Hill as follows.

There are other copies of these Directories. The Lightbox have 1908 and 1916 on disc (indexed), 1916 on very crumbly paper, 1938, 1948, 1949/50, 1957, 1964 and 1968. The History Centre have the discs somewhere behind the scenes and then complete from about 1921. Woking is also fully listed in the Kelly's Guildford directories from 1900 until the separate Woking ones start (these seem to be only at the British Library, which has the Woking directories from 1904 but not perfect until about 1919).
